

Key figures

- ➔ Operational since 2012
- ➔ 94 homes fitted with smart meters (July 2013)
- ➔ Two commercial “smart-grid ready” buildings (the Galeo building, headquarters of Bouygues Immobilier, and the Sequana Tower, occupied by Bouygues Telecom)
- ➔ Commissioning of intelligent street lighting
- Renovation and upgrading of the district's electricity substation
- ➔ IssyGrid® is currently being implemented in the Seine Ouest business district in Issy-les-Moulineaux – an area of 160,000 m² and nearly 10,000 people – and will eventually be extended to 1,650 homes in Fort d'Issy.

Partners

Political support

Set up on the initiative of the of the Issy-Les Moulineaux authorities and Bouygues Immobilier, IssyGrid® is France's first district-wide, energy optimisation pilot site

Best practice

Awarded “Grand Paris” accreditation, given to outstanding initiatives in the building of innovative, sustainable, socially responsible and liveable cities